

Acknowledgements

The major sponsors of this Conference were The Government of Grenada, The University of the West Indies, St. George's University, the Inter-American Network of Academy of Sciences in collaboration with the Organisation of American States, The Caribbean Development Bank, The University of the Southern Caribbean, The Third World Academy of Science, Petrotrin, Republic Bank, The Central Bank of Trinidad and Tobago, Atlantic-LNG, Trinidad Cement Limited and Graphics Extra Limited. We thank them all.

To the Grenada Government for generously agreeing to host the conference we say Thank You. In particular we thank the Honourable Prime Minister, Tillman Thomas for his support and for hosting the cultural night thus providing visitors to the spice isle with "A taste of Grenada."

We thank the Cabinet Secretary, Mrs. Elizabeth Greenidge and Permanent Secretary in the Prime Minister's Office, Mrs. Ann Isaac for their tireless work in bring the various strands of the conference together. We thank the Ministry of Education for their technical support and allowing their teachers to participate in the Teachers' Workshop. We thank the staff from the Ministry of Culture and staff from the various Ministries who have contributed to making this conference a reality.

We thank the Management and Staff of the St. George's University (SGU) for their enormous support for this conference. In particular we thank Professor Calum Macpherson, Vice Provost and Professor Patrick Rooney who from the very inception, bought into the concept of a jointly sponsored conference. Two components, the Welcome reception and the Meeting of Heads of Regional Universities were totally sponsored by and held at SGU. The University also played a major role in organizing the panel discussion on Cancer and took responsibility for organizing the ground transport.

We thank the University of the West Indies for enabling the participation of the featured speaker; for making publication of the conference proceedings possible; for funding the participation of many students and staff and for assisting in numerous other ways. In particular we thank Professor Clement Sankat, Principal of the St Augustine Campus, The Research and Publication Committee, The Distinguished Lecture Committee, The Centre for Medical Education, The Division of Marketing, the Medical Sciences Library and the Unit of Biochemistry.

We thank The University of Southern Caribbean and The Central Bank of Trinidad and Tobago who funded guest speakers. We also thank Republic Bank who sponsored the conference bags and who assisted with advertising.

We give special mention to the Inter-American Network of Academy of Sciences, the Organisation of American States and The Caribbean Development Bank; between them they funded the Academy's First Science Teachers' Workshop.

Graphics Extra assisted with advertising while Atlantic-LNG, Trinidad Cement Limited and Petrotrin all made significant contributions.

We thank the members of the various committees for their hard work and dedication. We thank the Secretaries all of those whom have in any way assisted with helping to make the conference a reality. We thank the Management and Staff of the Grenada Grand Beach Resort and finally we thank all of the invited speakers, the presenters and all of those attending the conference.

To conclude, we thank the Almighty.